

TABLE OF CONTENTS

POLAND AND UKRAINE – LITERARY CONTEXTS

ARTICLES

OLEKSANDRA SZTEPENKO, Shards of Trauma: Modelling the Narrative about Poles in the Auto-Reflexive Dimension (Based on Oksana Zabuzhko's Novel The Museum of Abandoned Secrets)	7
MATEUSZ ŚWIETLICKI, Friends and/or Enemies. Images of Polish-Ukrainian Relations in Canadian Children's and Young Adult Historical Fiction	25
MARCIN WOLK, "The Greek Catholic Church Is So Close to the Synagogue." The Role of Ukrainian Geographical and Cultural Space in Echo by Julian Strykowski	43
ANNA SKUBACZEWSKA-PNIEWSKA, Sifting Through Family History. Narrative Identity in Dom z witrażem [A House with Stained Glass] by Żanna Słoniowska and Dzieci Kazimierza [The Children of Kazimierz] by Michał Garapich	69
OLENA BONDAREVA, Post-Colonial Dramaturgical Reflections on the Fate of Athenian Democracy (The Cave of the Philosophers by Zbigniew Herbert and Hemlock for Socrates by Valery Gerasimchuk)	91
WIKTORIA DURKALEWICZ, "Now Is the Time of New Dramaturgy": Toward Natalia Vorozhbyt's The Grain Store	107
ANNA SZCZEPAN-WOJNARSKA, The Notion of Unrepeatability as a Constitutive Category in Lina Kostenko's Poetry (Based on Polish Translations)	129
WIERA MENIOK, Mariusz Olbromski's Poems About the Struggle of Ukraine	147
SZYMON BRUCKI, And Perhaps There Will Finally Be a War... The Reception of the Russian Aggression Against Ukraine in 2022 in the Lyrics of Polish Songs (Reconnaissance)	167
AGNIESZKA JAROSZ, The Word in Ksiądz Marek [Father Marek] by Juliusz Słowacki	183
MIROŚLAWA RADOWSKA-LISAK, On the Early Novels of Teodor Tomasz Jeż (with a Glance at the Author's Overall Work) Some Research Proposals	199
DARIUSZ PNIEWSKI, To Have (Bio)Power: Nineteenth-Century Narratives About Mennonites in Polish and Ukrainian Lan	217