

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CONTINENTAL GERMANIC LANGUAGES, LITERATURES AND CULTURES IN CONTRAST AND FROM DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVES

ARTICLES

ZUZANNA CZERWONKA-WAJDA, The Role of Orthographic, Cross-Linguistic and Individual Factors in the Occurrence of Pronunciation Errors: The Case of Dutch True and False Diphthongs in the Pronunciation of Polish Speakers	7
ANNA DARGIEWICZ, Gender Language in Public Space: Results of a Linguistic Landscape Research of German Public Space	27
BEATA POPLAWSKA, Is It So Black and White? Colour Perceptions Based on Lexical Comparisons with Black, White and Red in Dutch, French and Polish	51
ALEKSANDAR ĐOKANOVIĆ, Infanticide at the 21st-Century Theater: Reimagining the Jason and Medea Myth in the Plays Mamma Medea by Tom Lanoye and Hydra Krieg by Werner Fritsch	71
MAŁGORZATA DOWLASZEWICZ, The Image of Middle Dutch Literature in Polish Literary-Historical Texts	91
KATARZYNA GRZYWKA-KOLAGO, "And the Window Was Like a Distance Signal." On the Window Motif in Selected Autobiographical Works by Hanns-Josef Ortheil	109
GÁBOR PUSZTAI, A Painter Rather than a Writer: Jan Cremer in Hungary	125
ANITA SREBNIK, The Influence of the Kulturkampf on the Reception of Translated Dutch Literature in Slovenia after World War II.	141
JAN ZAŁĘCKI, Saint Servatius on Stage: The Medieval Legend in the Twentieth-Century Mass Theater	159
MONIKA BEDNARCZUK, Cultural Transfer and the Occult: The Reception of Esoteric Practices from West Germany in Socialist Poland	177
NAOMI BUIJS, From Praying to Preserving. HS 194 as a Case Study of the Shifting Function of a Manuscript	195
BAS HAMERS, Bata, a Shoe Giant in the Netherlands: What Dutch Newspapers Wrote About Tomáš Bat'a and the Establishment of the Batadorp	215
STEFAN KIEDROŃ, August Heinrich Hoffmann von Fallersleben (1798–1874) and His Achievements for Middle Dutch Literature	233

RECENZJE

AUGUST BOVER I FONT (Ed.). (2023). Espill de la vida religiosa (Desitjós) . Barcelona: Editorial Barcino (Miroslawa Hanusiewicz-Lavallee)	249
---	-----