

TABLE OF CONTENTS

COURTLY ART

ARTICLES

PIOTR GRYGLEWSKI, Shaping the Ruler's Mausoleum as a Tool of Dynastic Policy in Sixteenth-Century Europe. Selected Examples . . .	7
PIOTR KRASNY, In Deo faciemus virtutem. Artistic Manifestations of the Politicisation of the Cult of the Shroud of Turin by the House of Savoy . . . . .	37
KRZYSZTOF GOMBIN, Imagining The Idea of the Unity of the Commonwealth During the Great Northern War. Wawel Castle as a Witness (and Victim) of National Discord . . . . .	65
RYSZARD SZMYDKI, The Vasas of Poland on the Move – Władysław Zygmunt Vasa in the Southern Netherlands in 1624 . . . . .	85
GRETA DZIKOWSKA, The Palace of Charles V in the Alhambra: A Space of Ideas and Symbols in the Context of a Cultural Turning Point . . . . .	111
AGNIESZKA BENDER, Jean Baptiste Gayot Dubuisson (1658–1730) – Painter and Tapestry Cartoon Designer for King Augustus II Sas's Tapestry . . . . .	123

MARTA KRÓL, Amber Diplomatic Gifts in Western Europe – the Throne of Leopold I . . . . .	151
TOMASZ ROLSKI, The Painting of the Last Judgment in the Chapel of the Holy Cross, Founded by Janusz Tyszkiewicz – Iconographic Models . . . . .	163
RAFAŁ STANISŁAW NAWROCKI, Vivendo morimur; moriendo vivimus. At the Interface between Early Modern Tomb Sculpture and Wooden Architecture . . . . .	189
AGNIESZKA ŚWIĘTOSŁAWSKA, Images under Censorship. The Issue of Patriotic Graphics in the Trial of Ossolineum Employees in 1834 . . . .	219