

EDITORIAL

An integral part of this volume “Roczniki Teologiczne” [Annals of Theology] is the first issue of the “Human Dignity Journal”. It is the result of collaboration between Tangaza University College (TUC) from Nairobi in Kenya and the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin (KUL) in the joint Human Dignity Project. “Human Dignity Journal” is a part of collaboration tools in the existing cooperation between the two Universities which is confirmed by a bilateral agreement signed on January 31, 2014. The project combines the significant academic institution from East Africa and the largest Catholic university in Europe. The area of interest for both centers include joint scientific discourse, exchange of teachers and students, empirical research, joint conferences and publications. In the academic year 2013/2014 has organized a number of joint video-conferences with the participation of executives, lecturers and students from both institutions. This issue of “Human Dignity Journal” consists mainly of papers and other materials from the completed academic initiatives. Its issuance will be continued in future as a part of “Roczniki Teologiczne” fasc. 10 (Family Studies).

Katarzyna Zielińska-Król